White Lodging Names Adrian Aguirri as General Manager for the Courtyard Marriott Houston Galleria

Aguirri brings over 20 years of hospitality experience to his new position

Merrillville, Ind. (September 30, 2015): White Lodging is pleased to announce Adrian Aguirri as the new general manager for the Courtyard Marriott Houston Galleria.

"I am excited to join the hardworking team at the Courtyard by Marriott Houston Galleria as we aim to drive results from associate engagement, customer satisfaction and market share," said Aguirri.

Aguirri began his hospitality career in 1995 at the Ramada Emily Morgan in San Antonio, Tex. as a bell person and worked his way through many departments including housekeeping, front desk and night audits. He then transitioned to Hyatt Select Hotels Group and served as a guest sales and team service leader, assistant general manager, dual general manager, and general manager until 2005 when Aguirri transitioned to the Marriott brand. He has served as a general manager as well as a chairman on the Marriott International Business Council. In 2013, Aguirri joined White Lodging; his most recent position was the general manager of Homewood Suites Houston Galleria.

The Courtyard Houston Galleria, a TripAdvisor 2015 Award of Excellence winner, is a fifteen story high rise located steps away from the Houston Galleria Mall and businesses such as Accenture, Capital One and ExxonMobil. The bi-lingual staff and custom menu items attract high guest service scores as they enjoy breakfast and Lounge which offers a full menu and bar.
